

1. Name two of the themes Poe usually uses in his writings.

2. Describe an unhappy part of his life that may be reflected in his writings.

"The Purloined Letter"

3. Father
 3. Father
 4. pop. unpopular

5. Why was it important to find the purloined letter and whom did it belong to?

6. Why wasn't the Prefect able to solve the mystery and who did he call upon?

7. Give three steps that the detective used to return the letter and receive the reward.

went to house replaced w/ a diversion found it

8. State a lesson on life from this famous short story.

"The Black Cat"

9. Give an example of foreshadowing in this story. (2)

10. What character flaw gave the murderer away?

9. What was the purpose of the legend about "El Dorado"?

10. In "Annabel Lee" what can't be taken from the narrator?